Indonesian Host Family Expressions of Interest

CALLING FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Host an Indonesian Student in April 2026 – Share Culture, Make Connections, and Create Lasting Memories

Tranby College is seeking Expressions of Interest from families who would like to host a visiting Indonesian student for one week in April 2026.

This is a unique and rewarding opportunity to open your home to a student from Indonesia, offering them a genuine experience of Australian family life and culture, while learning about theirs in return.

WHEN?

April 2026 – for one week; very likely Week 1, Term 2, however, exact dates are to be confirmed.

WHAT IS INVOLVED?

As a host family, you will provide:

- A warm, caring, and welcoming home environment.
- A separate bedroom (if hosting two students of the same gender, they may share a room provided each has their own bed.)
- Three meals a day, including a packed recess and lunch on days when students attend school or excursions.
- Transport to and from Tranby College each day, or support with public transport if applicable.
- Inclusion in your family's daily life and activities.

WHAT IS PROVIDED?

Hosts will receive a financial contribution per student for the week to assist with associated costs.

WHAT IS REQUIRED?

To become a host, your household must meet the following:

- All adults (18+) in the household hold a valid Working With Children Check or are willing to obtain one.
- Be available for a brief home inspection.
- Have a genuine desire to share your home and support a young person's international experience.

If you are interested in becoming a host family, please complete the following form Expression of Interest - Hosting Indonesian Student April 2026 – Fill in form.
